6. Submission of petitions and memorials—(1) Any Government employee or a group of employees desiring to place a claim or seeking redress of his or their grievance in any matter connected with the service condition shall ordinarily address the authority at the lowest level competent to deal with the matter or the authorities superior to the officer against whose order or action redress is being sought for. If the employee or the group of employees does not receive within a fortnight any intimation of the action taken or of the redress given by the said authority, or is not satisfied with the action taken or the redress given by the said authority, the employee or the group of employees may directly address higher authorities, including the Minister, seeking interview or intervention.

(2) Any Government employee desiring to apply for any other post shall apply through his appointing authority who shall, unless there are any disciplinary proceedings pending against the Government employee, forward the application to the addressee.

A Government employee may, if necessary, send an advance copy of an application direct to the addressee.

7. Interpretation—If any question arises relating to the interpretation of these rules, it shall be referred to the Government whose decision thereon shall be final.

8. Repeal and savings—(1) The West Bengal Government Servants Conduct Rules, 1959, is hereby repealed.

(2) Notwithstanding such repeal, anything done, or any act committed or any omission made by any Government employee before the coming into force of these rules, the rules, which were in force when the thing was done, the act was committed or the omission was made, shall be deemed to continue and to have always continued to apply.

9. Any violation of infringement of these rules shall be deemed to be a good and sufficient reason within the meaning of rule 8 of the West Bengal Services (Classification, Control and Appeal) Rules, 1971, for imposing penalties.

Appendix I

[See rule 4(2)]

Procedure to be followed before going on strike

1. No employee shall go on strike without—
 - (i) completing the process of conciliation or negotiation in the manner laid down hereunder ; and
 - (ii) giving notice of at least 14 days to the appropriate authority and the strike shall not commence before expiry of the period of notice. For public utility services (as detailed below) the period of notice shall be 30 days.

Note—The following services shall be included in the category of Public Utility Services :

- (1) All services directly connected with the running of hospitals.
 - (2) Fire Brigade— operational services.
 - (3) Drinking water supply— operational services.
 - (4) Milk supply— operational services.
 - (5) Ration Shops of the Food and Supplies Department.
- (iii) Matters over which Government employees can go on strike should relate to conditions of service and work, welfare of the employees and improvement of efficiency and standard of work.
2. The following shall be the process of negotiation or conciliation :—
 - (a) There shall be a State Negotiating Body under the State Government. The body shall be headed by a senior officer of the Government of the rank of Secretary of a Department and shall consist of four other members not below the rank of Joint Secretary of a Department. The Body shall function under the direct control and Supervision of the Chief Secretary.
 - (b) The Body shall have a separate establishment of its own and shall be entrusted with the task of holding negotiation with Associations / Unions / Federative bodies on the grievances of the employees both of general nature or of departmental or sectional character.

The Unions / Associations / Federative bodies after exhaustion of negotiation with the appropriate departmental or Ministerial level shall place their points of grievances to this negotiating Body in writing on receipt of which the Negotiating Body shall call the aggrieved party and may also call the authorities concerned for negotiation and settlement of the grievances. The Negotiating Body shall not take more than 30 days except with mutual agreement of the Body and the aggrieved party to complete the negotiation. It shall be the responsibility of the Negotiating Body to make its recommendation to the appropriate authority and settle the grievances within the period of 30 days.

3. If the negotiation fails and no settlement of the grievances is reached within the stipulated period noted above, the Federative Bodies / Unions / Associations may serve a strike notice to the Appropriate Authorities under intimation to the Body mentioning the points of grievances.

4. On receipt of the strike notice the Negotiating Body may take further initiative to resolve the dispute and make all efforts to that effect by arranging discussion between the aggrieved party and the authorities concerned. In case of failure of such discussion the aggrieved party shall have the right to give effect to the strike notice.

5. When a strike, which commences after the procedure laid down hereinbefore has been complied with, continues for more than a fortnight the Appropriate Authority shall refer the disputes/grievances to a Board of Arbitrators, the composition of which may be by agreement between the parties. If, however, there is no agreement between and amongst the parties regarding the composition of the Board of Arbitrators, such a Board of Arbitrators shall be nominated by the Government which shall consist of not more than three members, majority of whom shall be other than Government employees.

6. The Board of Arbitrators shall hear all the parties to the dispute and give its award within a period of one month.

7. As soon as the grievances disputes leading to the commencement of a strike are referred by the Appropriate Authority to a Board of Arbitrators, the strike shall be called off forthwith.
